Refund Schedule

Time Period	Tuition Refund Amount
Up to the matriculation or continuation date	100%

Thereafter	Prorated minus 10%

Recipients of federal financial aid who officially withdraw are subject to Federal Title IV guidelines. Students who are expelled, administratively withdrawn, or suspended from the school are responsible for all financial obligations (see Student Handbook for more information).

Continuous Enrollment

Students must remain continuously enrolled once they matriculate. "Continuous enrollment" is defined as being in attendance full time at either campus or being on an Approved Leave of Absence (LOA). A student who fails to re-enroll in the next term, or fails to request and receive an LOA, or fails to re-enroll at the completion of an LOA, will be withdrawn from the school and must apply for readmission. Students who participate in an exchange program, internship, or study abroad assignment do not have to apply for a leave of absence.

Leave of Absence (LOA)

Students wishing to take a break from their studies may request a leave of absence (LOA). A student requesting an LOA is to provide written, signed notice to the Director of Admissions prior to the start of the next term. The notice is to indicate the expected last date of attendance before the LOA begins. Students requesting an LOA after the term in which they are currently enrolled, but before the term has ended, will be withdrawn for the term. The effective date of LOA/term withdrawal will determine whether a student is entitled to a refund. (See: Cancellation and Refund Policy; see also: Financial Aid for possible impact on aid.) Forms for Leave of Absence/Withdrawal can be found in the Student Handbook.

Withdrawal from School

Students wishing to withdraw from the school must submit a written notification to the Director of Admissions; the effective date of the withdrawal is the date that the written notice is received by the Director of Admissions. The effective date of withdrawal will determine whether a student is entitled to a refund. A student will be determined to be withdrawn if he/she has not been continuously enrolled (see Continuous Enrollment Policy). New students have until the end of the second week of their first enrollment period to give written notice of their intent to withdraw. Application, deposit, student accident insurance & activity fees will not be refunded. Financial aid recipients who stop attending must officially withdraw. A student's financial aid will be evaluated to determine the amount of aid the student has earned and how much needs to be returned to lenders or federal programs. The refund of tuition/fees will first be applied toward federal programs. Forms may be acquired from the Director of Admissions.
