

TSOA Statement of Diversity and Non-Discrimination

Diversity

The school has always respected the diversity of its community. Diversity includes geographic factors, socioeconomic status, age, values, career histories, gender, disability, sexual orientation, dietary choices, religious affiliation, and culture and ethnicity. The school encourages students to be aware of and value the differences among people.

Non-discrimination Policy

The School of Architecture is committed to equal opportunity for its students and applicants for admission, without discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed, national and ethnic origin, sex or sexual orientation, age, disability, marital or parental status, status with respect to public assistance or veteran's status. This policy applies to the administration of the school's educational policies, financial aid program, or any other programs made available to students. The Office of Student Services is available to discuss and investigate matters concerning discrimination.
